Woman Patient In Hospital Is Beaten By Intruder, Dies

Deputy Sheriff Rose is making an investigation of conditions at the Mitamura hospital, a private institution, which permitted a drunken man to enter upon the premises and beat a woman patient just recovering from an operation so severely that she died Sunday morning as a result, it is charged, of the injuries received.

The alleged assault occurred last Thursday night and was perpetrated by Kapapio, a drunken Hawaiian boy, who was permitted to run riot about the place for three-quarters of an hour and was not arrested until he had brutally beaten Mrs. Maria Rosa, who had given birth to a child six hours before.

Attacks Two Girls.

It was shortly after eight o'clock when Kapapio, unchallenged, staggered into the building, which is a private hospital under Japanese management. He immediately sought out Helen Lio, a girl friend of his who is in a convalescent condition.

He is alleged to have made himself obnoxious to her and when she told him to leave, he became abusive and slapped her several times across the face. She fled and the native staggered after her as rapidly as his intoxicated condition would permit.

Meanwhile Helen had managed to hide and the boy encountered Louise, the daughter of Mrs. Maria Rosa. The native had asked her where the Lio girl had fled and when she made a negative reply, he struck her across the face. She ran away and then Kapapio caught sight of Mrs. Rosa.

Drags Her from Bed.

He made the same inquiry of Mrs. Rosa and when he received the answer that she didn't know, he dragged her from the bed and started to beat her. She screamed with pain and Manuel Rosa, the husband, entered, and drove the boy from the room. But the native returned immediately and managed to strike Mrs. Rosa another vicious blow before he was subdued by the husband.

At this juncture, the hospital authorities stepped in and had Kapapio arrested. He was locked up at the police station late Thursday night and was held pending Mrs. Rosa's recovery. The woman died Sunday morning and the inquest will be held this evening.

Dr. T. Mitamura, proprietor of the hospital, will be summoned to make an explanation as to why no precautions are taken at the hospital to prevent the patients from being attacked by irresponsible outsiders.

ADMIRAL HERE TO INSPECT

If the bill goes through I will ask the commandant here to appoint such a board, and the questions can be decided."

Admiral Stanford is well satisfied with the progress of the Pearl Harbor work from a legislative standpoint.

"The work in Hawaii is getting an absolutely square deal in Washington," he said. "I think that the committee members of both houses, and Congress as a whole, realizes the importance of naval development in the Pacific, and that they consider our estimates and requests as just and reasonable. It is not the Pearl Harbor items that is holding up the appropriation bill."

President S. G. Hinds, of the San Francisco Bridge Co., contractors for the drydock, also arrived this morning. He talked the situation over with Admiral Stanford on the trip down, and undoubtedly there will be several conferences as to drydock construction within the next few weeks.

To Examine Work.

The work of pouring concrete into the second section of the drydock, which was to have been started yesterday, has been put off until tomorrow, so that both the "Y and D" chief and Mr. Hinds can be on the spot when the operation is resumed after the long delay.

Admiral Stanford passed through Honolulu in 1899 on his way to the Philippines, but has never made an extended stay here, and has never seen Pearl Harbor. His appearance bears out his high reputation for efficiency minus red tape. He was entitled to the full honors of flag rank when he called at the naval station this morning, but specially requested that they be omitted. Admiral Stanford is alone on his present trip, having left his family on the coast. He is staying at the Moana.

ANSWER TO CHARGES IN FEDERAL COURT

Gordon Roberts, arrested several days ago by federal officers on a charge of "white slavery" was arraigned this morning. Attorney Leon Straus was appointed his counsel and defendant is given until Thursday morning to enter plea, his bond meantime having been set at $1000.

Sunaro and Okata, indicted also by the federal grand jury, on a charge of conducting an illicit distillery, both entered a plea of guilty. They will be sentenced Thursday.

James F. Fisher, accused of aiding in the smuggling of opium, was arraigned and given until Thursday to enter plea. Attorney Straus was appointed counsel for the defendant.

William Joseph Hokulua pleaded guilty to the indictment for bigamy and will be sentenced Thursday.

Mary Williams and John Alapai, both indicted by the federal grand jury last week, were found to be serving sentence in the county jail on other charges. Bench warrants will be issued for them upon their discharge from jail at the completion of the present terms, and they will then be arraigned on the federal jury indictments.

The Inter-Island steamer W. G. Hall will be dispatched for Kauai ports this evening after having been discharged of a shipment of sugar.

CHILD GIVEN TO MOTHER, FATHER CREATES SCENE

Shattering the noonday quiet of Hotel street with yells and cries of mingled rage and grief, a chagrined Portuguese man and woman rushed out of Judge Whitney's court today and created a scene in front of the old Y. M. C. A. building that brought people running from every direction for two blocks.

Some thought murder had been done. But it was just another of Circuit Judge Whitney's cases. He had taken away the 12-year-old daughter of Julio Teixeira from the father's custody and awarded her to the mother, now Mrs. McMaster, wife of a Honolulu mail carrier.

The noise was made by the father, Julio, and his housekeeper, when they learned the court's edict. They even refused to give up the little girl and started to lead her out of court, but she was summarily taken from them and handed over to the mother.

The case is an old one, dating back to the time of the late Judge Gear, who granted a decree of divorce nine years ago, giving one girl to the mother and the other to the father. Four or five years later the father, a laborer, left Honolulu for Oakland, Cal., and placed his daughter in the care of a local Portuguese widow. He returned only recently, and wanted the court's permission to take the child back to California with him.

The mother explained that the caretaker had placed obstacles in the way to prevent her from visiting the older girl, in the father's custody, and that between them the father and the widow had poisoned the little one's mind, turning her against the mother.

When Judge Whitney ruled that the mother should have the full custody of both girls, the clouds gathered and the tempest began.

DR. SUN'S HEIR NOW A BENEDICT

Sun Fo and Miss Kai Chun of Honolulu Married at Moanalua

Attended only by a few personal friends, Sun Fo, eldest son and heir of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, first president of China, and Miss Kai Chun of Honolulu were married at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of F. W. Damon, with Dr. Doremus Scudder officiating.

Among the friends of the contracting persons present were Mr. and Mrs. Chang Chau, C. K. Ai and Ho Fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Sun Fo, accompanied by the two sisters of Sun Fo, will sail for San Francisco this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Sun Fo will re-enter the University of California and Mrs. Sun Fo will probably enter a girl's school in San Francisco with her husband's sisters.

The bride is a native of Honolulu and her parents reside here. She is but 16 years old.

It was originally planned for Miss Chun to go to the coast with Sun Fo and his sisters and attend school there until Sun Fo finished his college course when they were to be married. But the plans were changed at the last moment, when Sun Fo secured permission from his father to be married at once.

With his sisters, Sun Fo arrived here a week ago by the Shinyo Maru and they have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chang Chau at the latter's pretty home in Kauluwela lane.

FINDS CLIENT INDICTED.
When Attorney Rawlins appeared before Justice Monarrat this morning to defend D. K. Kama, charged with embezzling $100 from the Hawaiian Order of Longshoremen, he found that the man had been taken before the grand jury and indicted in the interim between last Thursday and today.

A delegation of Harvard men greeted Dr. Elliot from the Federal customs launch as the liner Siberia from the Orient, bearing the distinguished passenger anchored off quarantine this morning.
